FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

8 March 2011

Terry Waites, a client at North Herts Sanctuary, will be displaying his artistic work at present Hitchin Museum from Saturday, 12 March until Saturday, 30th April. Mr. Waites is a local artist with a growing international reputation for his paintings depicting the diversity and beauty of the natural world, from wild landscapes to the portrait of a beloved pet.

The exhibition is being presented in conjunction with the North Herts Sanctuary in Hitchin to highlight the issues and challenge the preconceptions surrounding homelessness.

"Mr. Waites is a very talented artist and we are hoping this exhibition will give the public the opportunity to not only enjoy his work, but to have a better understanding of the complex issues surrounding homelessness," says Paulette Williams, North Herts Sanctuary.

Terry Waite's works will be available to view at Hitchin Museum, located between Paynes Park, Old Park Road and Nuns Close, west of the town centre.
